

MOMENT FOR MISSION

CWS Blankets

Let me tell you a story. Imagine it's a cold winter night. A family has just survived a devastating storm, and they've lost everything. They have no home, no heat, no extra clothes. All they have is each other. What would they need most in that moment? Warmth. Comfort. Hope.

Jesus teaches us in Mark 12:31, "Love your neighbor as yourself."

This is the heart of today's message. It's a call to action, a reminder that our neighbors are not just the people we know, but anyone in need—whether they're across the street or across the world.

The need is great. But the solution is simple.

When disasters strike, families are left vulnerable, often without even basic comforts. And as the cold months settle in, many of our neighbors face the harsh reality of winter without adequate warmth.

But here's the good news: we can help.

For just $10, you can provide a warm CWS Blanket to someone who desperately needs it. For $25, you can give a blanket and a hygiene kit to help someone start fresh. And for $60, you can provide an entire family bundle of blankets and kits, bringing comfort and care to a whole household.

Your generosity has the power to spread love, share warmth, and deliver hope to people who may feel forgotten.

Today, let's live out the words of Jesus. Let's love our neighbors as ourselves. Together, we can make a real difference—one blanket, one family, one life at a time.

Thank you for your compassion and for being the hands and feet of Christ in this world. Let's share love, let's share warmth, and let's share hope. Amen.
