

"And don't forget to do good and share with those in need."

— HEBREWS 13:16

CWS BLANKETS

Embracing neighbors in the aftermath

Have you ever been through a big storm? The kind where you're glued to the weather channel, getting that terrifying text alert or hearing community sirens as you strategize the safest place in your house?

Families in western Ohio experienced that gripping fear when 15 tornadoes touched down overnight. And after the tornadoes finally let up, neighbors stepped out to a world that was broken. The destruction left a traumatic mark; even now, many families haven't been able to move back into their homes.

But they aren't alone, and they aren't forgotten. Your gift to CWS Blankets today proves it, as did the gifts of thousands like you last year.

With those gifts, members of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Dayton, OH were able to immediately embrace their neighbors. In a matter of days, they were distributing blankets and supplies to those who lost everything.

It signaled to a hurting community that someone cared about them. That Christ's love comforts and heals. That we find light together in our darkest times.

Will you give generously to CWS Blankets today to set that in motion for future needs? You'll signal your love to families who are desperate for a healing embrace.

"And don't forget to do good and share with those in need."

— HEBREWS 13:16

CWS BLANKETS

Embracing neighbors in the aftermath

Have you ever been through a big storm? The kind where you're glued to the weather channel, getting that terrifying text alert or hearing community sirens as you strategize the safest place in your house?

Families in western Ohio experienced that gripping fear when 15 tornadoes touched down overnight. And after the tornadoes finally let up, neighbors stepped out to a world that was broken. The destruction left a traumatic mark; even now, many families haven't been able to move back into their homes.

But they aren't alone, and they aren't forgotten. Your gift to CWS Blankets today proves it, as did the gifts of thousands like you last year.

With those gifts, members of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Dayton, OH were able to immediately embrace their neighbors. In a matter of days, they were distributing blankets and supplies to those who lost everything.

It signaled to a hurting community that someone cared about them. That Christ's love comforts and heals. That we find light together in our darkest times.

Will you give generously to CWS Blankets today to set that in motion for future needs? You'll signal your love to families who are desperate for a healing embrace.

To see our latest video of how you responded to needs in Dayton, scan this QR code or visit cwsblankets.org/dayton.

To see our latest video of how you responded to needs in Dayton, scan this QR code or visit cwsblankets.org/dayton.

In 2019, congregational gifts provided over 118,000 CWS Blankets and Kits to families impacted by hurricanes, tornadoes, flooding and other crises (including homelessness and poverty). Here's what your gift today could mean in 2020:

$10

Provides one blanket

$50

Gives blankets to an entire family

$250

Stocks shelves in a shelter with blankets before wintry lows hit

Forgot to bring cash or a checkbook? You can make an online donation - complete with a receipt for your records - at cwsblankets.org/donate.

Your gift supports two types of CWS Blankets:

HEAVYWEIGHT

These woolen blankets are great for frigid temperatures. They hold heat extremely well, they're water resistant, and they don't easily catch fire so people can use them while warming up by a heat source.

LIGHTWEIGHT

Appropriate for warmer climates, these fleece blankets keep families covered without adding bulk if they have to move around a lot. Fleece is water repellant, durable, warm and soft.

In 2019, congregational gifts provided over 118,000 CWS Blankets and Kits to families impacted by hurricanes, tornadoes, flooding and other crises (including homelessness and poverty). Here's what your gift today could mean in 2020:

$10

Provides one blanket

$50

Gives blankets to an entire family

$250

Stocks shelves in a shelter with blankets before wintry lows hit

Forgot to bring cash or a checkbook? You can make an online donation - complete with a receipt for your records - at cwsblankets.org/donate.

Your gift supports two types of CWS Blankets:

HEAVYWEIGHT

These woolen blankets are great for frigid temperatures. They hold heat extremely well, they're water resistant, and they don't easily catch fire so people can use them while warming up by a heat source.

LIGHTWEIGHT

Appropriate for warmer climates, these fleece blankets keep families covered without adding bulk if they have to move around a lot. Fleece is water repellant, durable, warm and soft.

Families also share that they use blankets:

- As insulated padding if they have to sleep on hard, cold surfaces
- As room dividers if they're staying in shelters and need a moment of privacy
- As bags to carry supplies if they must move from place to place

Thank you for embracing your neighbors in many different ways through your gift today!

"What we have really seen here in Dayton is that, when you're standing in front of someone who has lost absolutely everything and you hand them a blanket, that's the one thing they now have... It's more than just bodily warmth; it's the warmth of the Church coming to that individual."

- REV. TERRY KUKUK,
FAITH LEADER IN DAYTON, OHIO

Families also share that they use blankets:

- As insulated padding if they have to sleep on hard, cold surfaces
- As room dividers if they're staying in shelters and need a moment of privacy
- As bags to carry supplies if they must move from place to place

Thank you for embracing your neighbors in many different ways through your gift today!

"What we have really seen here in Dayton is that, when you're standing in front of someone who has lost absolutely everything and you hand them a blanket, that's the one thing they now have... It's more than just bodily warmth; it's the warmth of the Church coming to that individual."

- REV. TERRY KUKUK,
FAITH LEADER IN DAYTON, OHIO